From June 29, 2008 to June 29, 2009, Pope Benedict XVI invited the Universal Church to celebrate the Pauline Year: a year in honor of the 2,000th anniversary of the birth of St. Paul. As we prepare to celebrate this week the 50th anniversary since Bishop Sydney Metzger established St. Paul the Apostle Parish on September 1st, 1976, I hope that we can also live our own Pauline Year in this community. For this reason, I will include in the bulletin excerpts from Pope Benedict's series of 20 catechesis on Saint Paul delivered 18 years ago during his Wednesday General Audiences. These reflections explore the life, conversion, theology, letters, and spiritual legacy of the Apostle to the Gentiles.

In his first catechesis of July 2, 2008, Benedict said, "The Apostle Paul, an outstanding and almost inimitable yet stimulating figure, stands before us as an example of total dedication to the Lord and to his Church, as well as of great openness to humanity and its cultures. It is right, therefore, that we reserve a special place for him in not only our veneration but also in our effort to understand what he has to say to us as well, Christians of today. [...] And this is the goal of the Pauline Year: to learn from St Paul, to learn faith, to learn Christ, and finally to learn the way of upright living."

¡GRACIAS POR TU GENEROSIDAD!

Entre el 29 de junio de 2008 y el 29 de junio de 2009, el Papa Benedicto XVI invitó a la Iglesia universal a celebrar el Año Paulino: un año en honor al bimilenario del nacimiento de San Pablo. Mientras nos preparamos para celebrar esta semana el 50.º aniversario de la fundación de la parroquia de San Pablo Apóstol por parte del obispo Sydney Metzger, el 1 de septiembre de 1976, espero que también podamos vivir nuestro propio Año Paulino en esta comunidad. Por este motivo, incluiré en el boletín fragmentos de la serie de 20 catequesis sobre San Pablo que el Papa Benedicto impartió hace 18 años durante sus audiencias generales de los miércoles. Estas reflexiones exploran la vida, la conversión, la teología, las cartas y el legado espiritual del Apóstol de las Gentes.

En su primera catechesis, del 2 de julio de 2008, Benedicto afirmó: «El apóstol Pablo, figura sobresaliente y casi inimitable, pero estimulante, se nos presenta como ejemplo de entrega total al Señor y a su Iglesia, así como de gran apertura a la humanidad y a sus culturas. Es justo, por tanto, que le reservemos un lugar especial no solo en nuestra veneración, sino también en nuestro esfuerzo por comprender lo que él tiene que decirnos a nosotros, los cristianos de hoy. [...] Y este es el objetivo del Año Paulino: aprender de San Pablo, aprender la fe, aprender a conocer a Cristo y, finalmente, aprender el camino de una vida recta».
